

I am an XM subscriber, and XM has the right to offer me any services for the cost of my subscription. Every business in the US has the right to offer competitive services and competitive products for a competitive price. That's what we're built on! Why harass XM?

J. Jackson